

Camden Community Recreation Center Membership Info

A membership to the Camden County Recreation Center offers a wide variety of activities for a great price. All memberships include access to our pool, basketball gym, racquetball court, indoor cycling class, group fitness classes, and weight training and cardio equipment. Our facility also boast child care for children 3 months -12 years old in our Kids Corner available for members with a Family or Single Adult membership. For more information on our membership options and pricing checkout the link to the membership flier below.