

White Oak Nature Trail

WHITE OAK TRAILHEAD

Georgia Coast Rail-Trail

In the spring of 2010 three organizations formed a partnership to build the first 3.5 miles of the Georgia Coast Rail-Trail at this location. The group envisioned many generations of happy, healthy Camden County residents and coastal visitors biking and hiking through the extraordinary environmental wonders that encompass this great trail. Thanks to this partnership the vision continues.

Fred Freyer, Chairman
Terry Landreth, Vice Chairman
Jack Markley, Secretary/Treasurer
Ed McBrayer, Technical Advisor
Robert Cunningham, Legal/Right of Way
Leslie Lamkin, Public Relations
Jamie Kendall, Fund Raising
Project Management, Coastal GA Comm.
Chris Beaufait, Glynn County Chairman
Jim Collins, Liberty County Chairman
Fred Hay, McIntosh County Chairman

Camden County Commissioners
David L. Rainer, Chairman
Katherine "Nisi" Zell, Vice Chairman
Stephen L. Berry
Charlene Sears
David L. Rainer

Steve L. Howard, County Administrator
Scott Brazell, Public Works Director
William Brunson, Public Service Director
Robert Strickland, Project Foreman

Ed McBrayer, Executive Director
William C. Fowler, Chairman
B. Harvey Hill Jr., Vice Chairman
Charles Shufeldt, Secretary
Harry L. Anderson, Treasurer
Jim & Sarah Kennedy, Benefactor

Special Thanks
Larry & Peggy Lewallen, Contractor
Steven Hooks, Surveyor
Seaboard Construction, Contributor

georgiacoasttrailtrail.org

co.camden.ga.us

pathfoundation.org

Address: Located off of Hwy 17 S.

White Oak, GA 31568

This nature trail is a part of the Rails to Trails initiative, and can be accessed from Hwy 17 S at Refuge Rd right outside of Woodbine, at the intersection of Hwy 17 S and Waverly Rd, or at several other intersections including Oak and Waverly. The total length

View Slideshow